

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota Office of the Governor

Whereas, Allen (Spider) Marshall began his employment with the state of South Dakota as a temporary custodial worker on May 24, 1982, becoming a full-time custodial worker with the Bureau of Administration on May 3, 1983; and,

Whereas, Spider's position was reclassified to a custodial crew leader on December 29, 1986, resigning his position on September 4, 1987; and,

Whereas, On December 14, 1987, Spider was rehired by the Bureau of Administration as a permanent full-time custodial worker. His position was reclassified to a building manager on March 22, 1999; and,

Whereas, Spider is known for his excellent skills as a custodian and building manager, his availability to his co-workers, his professional manner in all situations, and for being a wonderful person; and,

Whereas, Spider has served the people of this great state for over 28 years, devoting the majority of his working life to the citizens of the state of South Dakota and will be missed by all who know him; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan to honor and congratulate him as he officially retires:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 23, 2011, as in South Dakota, and I join his co-workers, family, and friends in congratulating him on this well-earned retirement and wishing him a long, healthy, peaceful, and enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eleven.

Dennis Daugaard

Dennis Daugaard, Governor
